

STUDENT BULLETIN
Monday 26th June 2017

All Years

House Competition – One week to go and the race for first place is extremely tight! We have noticed we are running out of Eagle House Points so would all Eagles check your bags and pockets to see if you have any hidden tokens - every token posted into box will make a difference! The winner will be revealed at the Achievement Assembly on Friday!

	EAGLES	FALCONS	OSPREYS
WEEKLY TOTAL	200	77	190
TOTAL TOKENS	2272	2735	2787

Y3 – Will be closed for normal use tomorrow, Tuesday 27th. (JH)

SPORTS DAY

Soak the Teacher – Tomorrow, at Sports Day at lunch time, outside Enhanced Provision. S6 will be collecting again today and the two teachers with the most money raised will be soaked! Miss Robson and Miss Bissett are in the lead!! (FD)

Catering – Tomorrow, at Sports Day, S6 will be selling a variety of different foods at break time and lunch time outside Enhanced Provision. Menu: Chicken Burgers £2, Burger £1.50, Burger with Cheese & Onion £2, Hot Dogs £1.50, Ice-cream £1, Tray Bake Goodies 50p, Coke & Irn Bru 80p. You can also listen to music and have your face painted £20p. (FD)

S1 – S3

S4 – S6

Old S3 (New S4) Wood Workers - The clock mechanisms and hands have arrived. Could those who made a clock in S3, please collect their clock, mechanism and hands from the Technical department. Can you bring £2 for the clock mechanism please? Thank you. (SM)

Intermediate Biology Challenge - Students who have signed up to do the challenge, should go to Z4 at 12:30pm tomorrow, Tuesday 27th to complete the challenge. Bring lunch with you and make sure your Sports day duties have been taken care of first. (JK)

EMA - Application forms are now available from the office. EMA is available to all over 16's with a household income of £24,421 or less. Please see the office or Guidance staff if you require more information.